

50 ARE KILLED; 200 HURT IN GASOLINE EXPLOSION

SPARK FROM HAMMER IGNITES TANK CAR THIRTY-FIVE BODIES ARE RECOVERED FROM RUINS OF TWO CITY BLOCKS

Flaming Liquid is Thrown for Blocks and Starts
Score of Fires in Ardmore, Okla.—City is Immediately Placed Under Martial Law—Property Loss Estimated at $500,000.

ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 27.—A spark from a workman's hammer ignited a tank car of gasoline here late today and from the ruins of two city blocks, razed by the resulting explosion and the fires which followed, thirty-five bodies had been recovered late tonight.

Fifty persons were believed to have been crushed to death under falling walls or burned to death while pinned in the debris of stores, wholesale houses and the Ardmore railroad station. Search among the ruins was proceeding methodically tonight, the workers centering their efforts on the tangled mass of lumber and bricks which had been the department store of Maddin & Co., where it was feared the bodies of many girl and women shoppers and employees would be found.

The property damage was estimated at $500,000.

Place City Under Martial Law.

A score of fires caused by the flaming gasoline which was thrown for blocks when the car exploded with a terrific detonation, were gotten under control after two hours desperate work by a small local fire department, aided by every able-bodied man in the city not assisting the injured. The city was immediately placed under martial law.

A badly mutilated body was identified tonight as that of Ira Woods, employed by the Ardmore refining company, which owned the oil. It was believed Woods struck the hammer blow that caused the explosion. He is survived by a widow and three children. Will Graham, an employee of the same company, was pinned under the debris of the Santa Fe freight house when that building was wrecked. His brother witnessed Graham's death in the flames that followed the explosion.

Private homes of the city were immediately thrown open to the injured and scores of men were working tonight in the smoldering ruins along Main street in search for additional victims.

Among the buildings destroyed were the Ardmore railway station, Swift & Co., Pennington Wholesale Grocery company, Wittington Hotel, Maddin & Co. drygoods, and the De Witt Clear company. Not a building on Main escaped damage either as a result of the force of the explosion or of the fires following. The publishing plants of the Daily Ardmore and the Statesman were badly damaged.

All school buildings, business houses and residences within twelve blocks of the business district bear evidence of the explosion. Practically every window in the city was shattered by its force.

Caused by Spark From Hammer.

Two workmen were busy repairing the tank at 2:30 p.m. Suddenly one of the struck it with a hammer. A spark from the blow ignited fumes escaping through a small leak, there was a terrific explosion followed by many smaller ones. The workmen were blown to pieces. The shock shattered the Ardmore railroad station used by the Santa Fe, Frisco and Rock Island railroads and the Rock Island freight stations and scores of other buildings took fire from the flying liquid. The flames spread rapidly until all of Main street appeared a roaring furnace. Thirty freight cars in the Santa Fe railroad yards were destroyed. The pall of smoke hanging over the whole city prevented rescuers from doing effective work. The roof of the Wittington Hotel was blown off by the force of the first explosion but all guests were believed to have saved their lives. The entire block in which Pennington Wholesale Grocery was located was razed by fire. At the store of Maddin & Co., scores of girls were working and it was feared tonight some of them lost their lives.

Deeds of Heroism.

Deeds of heroism were many. A woman waiting at the railroad station with a baby in her arms and a four year old child at her side, dashed three blocks with her double burden, her own clothes blazing as she ran. Passersby smothered the flames with their bare hands. The mother was taken to the hospital dangerously burned. The children were not seriously injured.

For five hours after the explosion Ardmore was cut off completely from the outside world. Telephone and telegraph communication was severed by the wrecking of poles in the downtown district.

The following dead have been identified:

Charles Smith, former policeman.
M. E. Atkins, drayman.
A. C. Gould, huckster.
Breston Blaz, Santa Fe flagman.
Reuben Warren, farmer.
Tom Gilky.
S. Twyford.
F. E. Sims, Santa Fe flagman.
Ira Woods.
Will Graham.

The body of an unknown 16 year old white girl, an unidentified Indian, an unidentified white boy and five unidentified negroes were at undertaking establishments.

It was impossible to ascertain the names of the other victims.

Recover Thirty-One Bodies.

At 9:15 o'clock tonight thirty-one bodies had been recovered, of these twelve were negroes. The property loss was estimated at $500,000.

Many of those who lost their lives were buried under debris when the force of the explosion shattered buildings and threw down outside walls.

Charles Smith was standing on Main street when the shock occurred. He was killed by bricks from a building nearby. M. E. Atkins, a drayman, was three blocks away when the explosion was felt. The wall of a building buried him in Main street. A. C. Gould, a huckster, was driving across the Santa Fe tracks. He met death along with his horse. He was blown to pieces. An Indian sitting in a wagon near the Love hotel was crushed lifeless when the east side of the structure fell.

Along Main street from the Santa Fe freight station to the Wittington hotel every building was demolished. On the opposite side of the street Swift's plant was wrecked and burned. A two story rooming house over a cafe at the corner of Main and Caddo streets was razed, as was Biggs' restaurant.

Twyford was killed there. A woman was dragged from the ruins dead. Several negroes were taken out there also.

Search Frantically For Missing.

Almost every family in Ardmore had as many as one member away from home when the explosion occurred and it was only a short time until the burning district was filled with men and women frantically searching for missing ones.

Chief of Police Hutchins quickly swore in one hundred deputies to handle the situation and prevent persons from endangering their lives by entering wrecked buildings.

Because of the destruction of many poles carrying electric light wires the city was in darkness tonight.

A two story building occupied by negroes as a pool hall and rooming house was wrecked. A report was in circulation tonight that twenty negroes had been buried there.

Every room in Ardmore's hospitals is full. Surgeons from Wilson and Marlette, Okla., were hurried here to care for the injured. It is estimated two hundred persons received minor injuries, such as cuts from flying glass.

GIRL IS SHOT IN ARM.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 27.—A young girl was shot in the arm by supposed bandits tonight when she fired into the house where she lived near Harlingen. They fired six shots into the house.

Four persons were shot while hunting near San Benito today. A fourteen year old boy was killed. The others were soldiers, all of whom were wounded but not fatally hurt.

LIQUOR DEALERS OPEN CONVENTION.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 27.—Three hundred liquor dealers, members of the Liquor Dealers' Protective association of Illinois, formally opened a three day convention tonight with a banquet at a local hotel. Delegates from Cook county arrived on a special train.

CALL GENERAL STRIKE OF CLOTHING WORKERS

ORDER OF CHICAGO UNION AFFECTS
MORE THAN 25,000 WORKERS

Action Follows Failure of Manufacturers to Make an Effort to Bring About a Peace Parley—Several Shops in New York Will Be Affected.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Union officials tonight declared that between 4,000 and 5,000 clothing workers had obeyed the initial order to strike. More than 450 were affected by a lockout, due to the strike.

Keep Police Guards Busy.

Although union leaders expressed a willingness to co-operate with the manufacturers in an effort to restore peace, they made it known that if the merchants did not make some move toward a peace parley by midnight tonight, a general strike call, affecting between 20,000 and 25,000 employees would be drafted. August police guards were kept busy during the day but no real trouble developed. Five alleged pickets were arrested shortly after noon at a crowded downtown corner. Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated association of Garment Workers, said tonight that the first order was to show the manufacturers that the union meant business and really controlled the clothing workers of the city.

Twenty-seven striking garment workers were arrested tonight. Seven of those taken into custody were passing out hand bills in the vicinity of the shops affected by the lockout and refused to desist when ordered away by members of police guard. Several small disputes occurred during the evening.

Will Affect New York Shops.

At midnight the ultimatum of the Garment Workers' Union to the manufacturers expired without the latter having made an effort to bring about a peace parley and union leaders announced that a general strike call, affecting more than 25,000 workers and covering 400 ready-to-wear and custom tailor concerns, was issued. With the exception of a few independent tailor shops, it was predicted by union leaders that trade would be at a standstill tomorrow morning. Several shops in New York also will be affected. The strike is for increased wages, better working conditions and union recognition.

OVERRULE TWO MOTIONS BY DEFENSE IN MUNDAY TRIAL

MORRIS, Ill., Sept. 27.—Two motions made by the defense in the trial of C. B. Munday, charged with conspiracy to wreck the LaSalle Street Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago were overruled today by Judge Stough. The first motion was to strike from the files the record and supplemental record of former actions in the case because of omission. The second motion of the defense overruled by the judge was to direct the clerk of the criminal court of Cook County to furnish the clerk of the circuit court of Morris with a true and correct record of the case.

THEATRICAL ROW IN FEDERAL COURT.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 27.—Actresses and chorus girls flocked today to the U. S. district court to hear the arguments of the lawyers concerning a song and its copyright. A vaudeville pair have been singing, "Hello, Hello," the song which the Ziegfeld Follies claim to control. They were recently haled into court, and promised to drop the song from their act pending the court hearing. After the lawyers' arguments today, the singers, Dolly Sweet and Lester Hill, will appear for final hearing on the charge of violation of copyright.

BELIEVE MURDERER HAS TAKEN REFUGE IN MINE

Walsburg, Colo., Sept. 27.—Armed men tonight guarded every exit from the Walsburg-Cameron and McNally coal coal mines where the murderer of Robert Mitchell, democratic county chairman and editor of the Walsburg Independent, is believed to have taken refuge. Bloodhounds today went directly from the place where Mitchell fell at his home last night to an entrance to the Walsburg mine which is connected to the others.

WHEELER ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 27.—Dr. John A. Wheeler, sheriff of Sangamon county, formally announced his candidacy today for the republican nomination for secretary of state. Since he became sheriff, Wheeler has enforced the Sunday closing law in Sangamon county.

CONVICT KILLS PRISON SUPERINTENDENT

Salem, Ore., Sept. 27.—Harry Minto, superintendent of the Oregon state penitentiary, was shot and killed by Otto Hooker, an escaped convict late tonight.

ELEVEN MEN ARE ENTOMBED IN MINE

Culm and Water Break
Through Roof of Coal
Dale, Pa., Mine

CAUSE NOT DETERMINED

Gangs Work in Half Hour Shifts
in Effort to Stem Flow of Water Piling Up Barrier

MAY REACH MEN LATE TODAY

LANSDOWN, Pa., Sept. 27.—Eleven miners, laborers and drivers in the Foster tunnel of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Co. at Coal Dale, two miles from here, were entombed shortly before noon today by a sudden rush of culm and water that had broken through the roof from an abandoned working. Gangs of men hastily summoned worked in half hour shifts this afternoon and tonight in an effort to stem the flow of water that was piling up the barrier of culm, dirt and coal behind which the men are held prisoners, but from reports of company officials it will be late tomorrow before the men can be rescued. All the entombed men are from Lansdown or mining towns in this vicinity. They are William Watkins, George Holleywood, Elmer Herring, Peter Lemnick, Joseph Murphy, John McAndrew, Dominick Holcheck, John Bononus, Michael Boderi, Joseph Lagonis and Charles Molochos.

Cause Is Not Determined.

C. H. Suender, vice-president of the company, said tonight that the cause of the accident had not been determined. Reports tonight were that the men were behind the mass of debris, believing that they had been warned of the fall and had run farther back to a place of safety.

GRANT'S AUTO CATCHES FIRE; DRIVER IS BADLY BURNED

Noted Race Pilot Will not be Able to Enter Astor Cup Race at Sheepshead Bay Track Next Saturday.

New York, Sept. 27.—Harry Grant, noted automobile driver and twice winner of the Vanderbilt cup race, was so badly burned today while contesting in the elimination trials for the Astor cup races at the Sheepshead Bay track, that he will not be able to enter the contest next Saturday. Grant's automobile caught fire while traveling at 100 miles an hour and Grant and his mechanic were enveloped in flames. They brought the machine to a stop and jumped out but Grant was severely burned on the legs and arms and was taken to a hospital. The mechanic escaped with slight burns. Hospital authorities said tonight that Grant would not be able to leave the institution for at least ten days.

Those who qualified for the Astor cup race today were Wilcox, Oldfield, Mickenbacher, Cooper, Resta, Aitken and Haupt.

Resta made the best time, speeding at the rate of 106 miles an hour.

X-RAY PHOTOGRAPHS SHOW HEAVY CHARGES OF BUCKSHOT IN BODIES

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 27.—X-ray photographs of the bodies of Colonel Robert W. Mueller and wife, whose charred remains were found in the ruins of their summer cottage near Marquette, Wis., on Saturday last and brought to Milwaukee today, disclose heavy charges of buckshot, supposed to have been fired at a distance of about thirty feet and the latest circumstances surrounding the mysterious tragedy indicate a crime of wilful murder. Excitement of the populace in the vicinity of the supposed murder is at fever heat and fear is expressed for the safety of anyone who may be arrested on suspicion.

ONE IS KILLED WHEN TRAIN BACKS INTO CAR

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 27.—One man was killed and four others were seriously injured tonight when a Chicago, Milwaukee & Gary freight train backed into a street car at a grade crossing here.

FOUR COMMISSIONERS LEAVE FOR CHICAGO

WILL CONFER WITH WESTERN BANKERS OVER TERMS OF ALLIED LOAN

Train Bearing Lord Reading and His Associates Is Inspected and Policed as Never Before—Railroad Detectives Are Aboard.

New York, Sept. 27.—The fast New York Central train which left here today for Chicago with Lord Reading, Lord Chief Justice of England, and three of his associates in the Anglo-French financial commission aboard, was inspected and policed as never before when it rolled out of the Grand Central station this afternoon.

Receive Threatening Letters.

The commissioners were bound for Chicago where they are to confer with western bankers over the tentative terms of the proposed half billion dollar credit loan to Great Britain and France. During their stay in this city, members of the commission have received threatening letters from persons hostile to the loan and the police have taken unusual precautions to guard them from harm.

These precautions were extended today to their departure for Chicago. Twenty detectives and plain clothes men were scattered through the lobbies of the hotel where the commission has been staying as the time for their departure approached. Another squad in which there were a number of railroad detectives, awaited the commissioners in the Grand Central station and still other detectives were stationed at intervals along the short route which the commissioners took from the hotel to the station.

The train itself was under surveillance from the moment it was made up. One car was set aside for the use of the commission and this coach was scrutinized more closely, perhaps, than any other.

Railroad Detectives Examine Car.

Every article of furniture in this car was examined by railroad detectives before the car was thrown open. The contents of all other coaches also were inspected. After the train had been made up railroad detectives went over the cars carefully from the outside, even examining the trucks and bearings to make sure that no dangerous missile had been secreted in any part of the train. The engine was rigidly examined and, by one, except detectives and the crew, was permitted to go near the train until it was ready for passengers.

All passageways boarding the train passed detectives who scrutinized them and their baggage closely. When the train departed railroad detectives were said to be aboard. Some of Lord Reading's friends had urged him to permit at least two detectives to reserve accommodations in the car set aside for the commission. It is understood he vetoed this suggestion. Information as to the precautions was refused by a representative of the railroad tonight but it was reported without confirmation that the elaborate plans for securing the commission's safety while on the way to Chicago were taken at the suggestion of a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., the fiscal agents in this country of Great Britain and France.

Plan to Entertain Commissioners.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Plans were made today by Chicago bankers and business men for the entertainment of the members of the Anglo-French loan commission who are expected to arrive here tomorrow morning for several days' stay in the west. Although the day it was repeatedly declared that the visit was to be strictly social in its nature with the object of giving the visitors an opportunity to become acquainted with the financial and business leaders of the middle west. Thought there should be no formal conferences touching the object of the trip of the commissioners across the Atlantic it was pointed out that in the social meetings there would be no opportunity to discuss financial and other matters should the commissioners and those they meet so desire.

The members of this commission are not coming to Chicago to engage any of the Chicago bankers in negotiating for the foreign loan," said John A. Spoor, chairman of the board of the Union Stock Yards and Transit company, "the seizure of the Chicago packers' $15,000,000 meat cargoes has nothing to do with their visit either. I was requested by J. P. Morgan to arrange a social visit here for the foreign visitors.

In addition to local men of prominence a number of invitations have been extended to financial and business leaders in nearby cities to meet the visitors at some of the social events which have been planned.

WAUGH IS GIVEN DECISION ON A FOUL

Shreveport, La., Sept. 27.—Bobby Waugh, of Fort Worth, lightweight, was given the decision on a foul tonight in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout over Ad Volgaist, former lightweight champion. Up to the sixth round Waugh had the best of the fight. The question of a foul was decided by a physician who was called into the ring when Waugh fell to the floor.

H. U. MUDGE RESIGNS AS RECEIVER FOR THE ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—H. U. Mudge, one of the receivers for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad resigned late today. Judge Carpenter of the United States district court, to whom the resignation was submitted, refused to accept it until he consulted Judge Dickinson, former Secretary of War, the other receiver.

Mr. Mudge emphatically denied that any friction in the receivership proceedings had caused him to resign.

"My resignation was entirely voluntary," he said. "I feel that two receivers are not necessary. I am an operating railroad man—not a lawyer. There has been absolutely no friction between me and the other receiver. There is no necessity for divided responsibility."

CITIZEN TROOPS DEMONSTRATE PROFICIENCY IN SOLDIER'S WORK

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The volunteer soldiers at the training camp at Fort Sheridan today demonstrated their proficiency in building shelter tents in making short forced marches and in the manual of arms. Trench digging in the soggy ground, wet with recent rains, occupied the attention of two companies while others of their comrades repeated the optical drill of sighting their rifles at moving targets.

Preparations were made today to replace the school of the squad and school of the company with the school of battalion in which the companies will maneuver together in column and line of battle.

CATHOLICS END CONVENTION.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 27.—The annual state convention of the American federation of Catholic societies came to a close here today with the adoption of a resolution demanding the fulfillment of the pledge made by the administration that no government established in Mexico not guarantee full religious liberties to the inhabitants of that country be recognized by the American people.

NEGROES RELATE TROUBLES.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 27.—A number of negroes related today their troubles in registering and testified that they were refused permission to vote in the election of November 3rd, 1914, at the trial of Mayor Joseph E. Bell, indicted for election conspiracy. Most of these witnesses succeeded in registering, they said but when they went to vote they were told that their names were not on the registration books.

OPEN ORPHAN ASYLUM IN MEXICO CITY.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 27.—A special tonight to the Brownsville Herald from Mexico City dated Sept. 23rd, says the building in Mexico City formerly occupied by the National Lottery has been taken by the Carranza government and now used as an orphan asylum. It accommodates four hundred orphans.

ALLIED OFFENSIVE HAS NOT SLACKENED

British Statement Tells of Heavy Losses Inflicted
on the Germans

FIGHTING IS VICIOUS

British Public is Warned to Expect Heavy Losses and That Germans May Reinforce

NO CHANGES IN EAST

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The great offensive of the French and British forces against both sides of the elbow joint of the German positions on the western front has no slackened, but General Joffre's afternoon bulletin reported no new outstanding success.

The British official statement told briefly of heavy losses inflicted on the Germans northwest of Hulluch, where heavy German counter-attacks were carried out during the course of the day.

States Counter-Attacks Check Drives

Berlin maintains that by means of counter attacks the allies' drives have been checked with heavy loss, but as the Germans make no claim of having recovered the ground taken from them the indications are that the allied gains on Saturday and Sunday have been generally maintained and at some points improved and that the fighting has reached the state of vicious attack and counter-attack which may persist for weeks.

It is estimated that the prisoners captured by the allies during the rush will reach a total of more than twenty three thousand, but this is offset to some extent by the German claims that nearly seven thousand British and French fell into their hands. Denied further news of the great battle, England is awaiting developments with an eagerness unequalled since the critical days when the Germans fell back from the gates of Paris. In the meantime the public is warned to expect heavy losses and that the Germans, already two million strong from the coast to the Swiss frontier, may throw reinforcements into the line for a struggle the like of which this bloody war has not yet seen.

Difficult Task Before Allies.

Optimists also are reminded that the Germans are likely to put the most dependence on their second and third line defenses, relying upon machine guns and comparatively few men to hold the front line which means that a difficult task is before the allies.

The fighting in the eastern theater has brought no important changes but England regards the position of the Russians as improving daily which strengthens the hope that Germany dare not weaken her seven hundred mile front in the west. The Russian situation remains obscure resting as it did last week on the oft repeated assurance of Sofia that the country expects merely to have a neutral armed mobilization.

PHYSICIANS STATE DEMAREST HAS A CHANCE FOR RECOVERY

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 27.—Calvin Demarest, former amateur champion billiard player, has a chance for recovery, according to the physicians at a sanatorium here where he has been dangerously ill for several months. Demarest was brought here after an outbreak at his Chicago home during which he attempted to kill his wife and mother. Recently the patient has been suffering from melancholia and has been under constant surveillance.

MURRAYVILLE CHURCH WEDD'NG AFTER MORNING SERVICE SURPRISE

Mr. John Warcup and Miss Emma Rimbey Married Sunday, in the Methodist Church by Rev. E. S. McCollom.

A marked surprise was sprung on the congregation of the Murrayville Methodist church Sunday morning, after the usual preaching service, when Mr. John Warcup and Miss Emma Rimbey marched to the altar and Rev. E. S. McCollom spoke the words which united them for life. While it has been known that the bride and groom have been friends for many years, and their friends believed that some day the event would come to pass, yet when it was sprung on them Sunday, the audience plainly showed that it was unexpected. Mr. and Mrs. Warcup are highly respected people of Murrayville, where they have always resided. Mrs. Rimbey's father Uriah Rimbey resided there and they expect to live with him.

Monday night the newly weds were given an old fashioned charivari and all were invited in and the noise-makers were treated in a satisfactory manner. Many good wishes will be extended Mr. and Mrs. Warcup in their married life.

H. L. Dailley, district agent of the Clover Leaf Casualty company, was in the city Monday calling at the main office.

Bulgaria Stands Firm.

It is hoped that the official statement from Bulgaria of the firm intention to remain a neutral nation is founded upon sincerity and that the authorities in that country will continue to maintain their stand. No matter whether their sympathies are with the allies or with the Germans, a great many American citizens realize that the entry of Bulgaria or others of the Balkan group into the great war would not only immediately increase the bloodshed, but would be very likely to aid in prolonging the war.

Beware of Typhoid.

It is not the time to be alarmed, but it is the time to clean up and avoid all conditions that in any way contribute toward typhoid fever. If sanitary conditions prevail about your premises and the water you drink is pure the chances are excellent for your avoiding any typhoid trouble although there is the possibility of your getting the typhoid "germ" in some other way. Vaccination is now an approved way of securing escape from typhoid. But whatever you do, see that your water supply is pure and if there is any doubt boil the water and be on the safe side. Conditions at Petersburg furnish a warning of typhoid possibilities.

Graft in War Purchases.

With such enormous purchases being made in the United States for the warring nations in Europe and with such buying power placed in the hands of agents, it is really not surprising that there are reports of graft. Two representatives of the English government were in Chicago recently enroute to British Columbia where they are to begin investigation of alleged irregularities in purchases which are said to have resulted in hundreds of thousands of dollars of illegal profits for purchasing agents. It is the expectation that the graft investigation in connection with supply purchases will be carried into a great many cities in Canada and the United States, as it is alleged that there has been an organized system of theft.

Man the Clinging Vine.

In Cleveland, Ohio, lives a woman, Mrs. Mathey Noble, whose actions according to statements recently made, are not in accord with her name. The actions referred to are complained of in a bill filed by Mr. Noble, who seeks to have his wife pay him alimony. Mr. Noble declares that he is now three score and ten years old and that he is unable to make the goodly sums he used to as contractor and builder. He says that during his prosperous days he amassed a considerable sum and invested it in two buildings which he deeded to his wife, and that now the wife spends all of the income and leaves him to shift for himself. The story is very much in accord with the rapid changes which have taken place in man's estate during recent years.

The Ladder Test for Toppers.

Based upon experience in Jacksonville, the authorities in Venice, Calif., who have proposed the ladder test for drunkenness, will be compelled to change their standards. In Venice there are some complaints because men arrested for drunkenness declared that they might have had a few drinks but were perfectly able to take care of themselves, so the police department determined on the ladder test and now each man who is arrested for drunkenness is required to climb a ladder, or endeavor to climb, and on his success as a climber depends the verdict as to whether or not he is really drunk. Here a few years ago a man who was undoubtedly intoxicated climbed to the top of the Y. M. C. A. building and fell to the ground without sustaining any injury. In local police circles the ladder test would not be accounted conclusive.

Hay and Military Preparedness.

Representative James Hay, chairman of the Military Committee of the House, has made it clear that he will vigorously oppose any sincere effort of the President to increase the strength of the Army, except as that might be accomplished by increasing the effectiveness of the militia. Mr. Hay also indicates that he is opposed to increasing the number of officers to be trained at West Point, although all experts on the subject point out the great desirability of trained officers to command both militia and volunteers in the event of an emergency. It is quite clear that if the President urges upon Congress any far-reaching policy of defense he will meet with strong opposition from his own party, an opposition which will be made the more effective by the empty treasury and the failure of Democratic legislation to produce anything like adequate revenue.

A Ban on Useless Noises.

A quiet zone sufficiently wide in extent to give relief to both the hospitals on East State street should be established. This could be done without inconvenience to the railroads or to the persons who drive vehicles past the hospitals. All of the railroads pass near the hospitals and a great amount of bell ringing and whistling blowing is necessary, but such rules could be adopted as would materially lessen the noise. No doubt the railroads will be glad to co-operate in the movement when they know the special purpose is to add to the comfort of hospital patients.

The annoyance from vehicles will be largely done away with by the proposed new trolley pavement on East State street which is practically noiseless. Unnecessary noise from automobile cut-outs can be quickly regulated by the police and altogether the difficulties in the way of the needed quiet zone are comparatively few. In Chicago and other cities a zone of quiet surrounds every hospital.

To Consider Mission Themes.

The great war it is admitted has added problems to missionary work both at home and abroad and made the whole effort more difficult. Some of these new problems will be considered by the 34th annual convention of the Board of Managers of the Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. church opens in Seattle. The sessions will begin tomorrow, with 300 delegates from all parts of the country and will continue for a week.

The purpose of the convention is to devise new means of aiding and developing all forms of missionary activity. Specialists on the subject will deliver lectures and missionary work will be discussed from all angles.

The work of the society since its organization immediately following the Civil War has been responsible for not only the extension of religious principles throughout the country, Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico but has done much to remedy social conditions as well. The establishment of industrial schools by the society is one of its greatest works.

The first president was Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes, wife of the President. Rutherford B. Hayes. Mrs. Wilbur P. Thirkfield, wife of Bishop Thirkfield of New Orleans, is now serving her second term as president.

The negro and the mountain whites, the Spaniards and the Mexicans, Indians of Alaska, the immigrants arriving in America and those already settled in the tenement districts of the big cities, are among the many classes of people aided by this organization. There are 135,000 members.

Garbage Plant Would Help.

The question of garbage disposal is one which confronts every city and grows more insistent with passing years, as the ideas of the people develop with reference to questions of sanitation. At the city council session Monday morning Mayor Rodgers stated that he is very much in favor of the erection of an incinerating plant in this city. Members of the council are said to be in accord with the idea, and it is the intention to include in the appropriation ordinance in January a sum sufficient to provide for such a plant. At the expenditure of $4,000 or $5,000 it is estimated that a plant sufficient to meet the needs of Jacksonville could be erected and there would probably be enough return from the sale of fertilizer products to pay for the operating expenses.

The project is one which deserves both commendation and action, as the question of garbage disposal is closely related to that of public health. Even with the erection of such a plant there will be considerable garbage that cannot be consumed and a dumping ground for tin cans and refuse matter of that kind will still be necessary. For years there have been complaints of the difficulty in approaching the dumping ground maintained near the north end of Church street, and it is to be hoped that the council can proceed with some steps to make this ground readily accessible and thus do away with the frequent and well-grounded complaints.

WITH THE WIFE

D. H. Hall residing just north of the long bridge on North Main street is very ill.

Mrs. A. P. Vasconcellos who has been very ill is better.

Miss Margaret Clampt of West North street who has been ill for several days, will be taken to Passavant hospital today for treatment. It is thought she is threatened with typhoid fever.

Mrs. W. E. Spoonts who has been ill for a number of weeks, was in a more serious condition Sunday and Monday. Because of her illness no service was held in Northminster church Sunday evening and Rev. Mr. Spoonts will be unable to attend the fall meeting of the presbytery in Springfield today.

Miss Helen McBride who has been ill for some time is slowly improving.

Mrs. Stella Ferreira of Springfield is seriously ill there from typhoid fever. Mrs. Ferreira has a number of relatives in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Edmund Blackburn, who has been confined to her bed for more than eight weeks past because of a fractured hip, is improving steadily. In the course of another week it is expected that she will be able to sit up.

Mrs. Edwards, who resided south of Franklin, is reported seriously ill.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, of Leami, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Blackburn, 229 Caldwell street, recently fell down stairs and suffered an injury to one rib which will confine her to her room for several weeks. A ligament was torn by the fall.

MATRIMONIAL

Taylor-Day.

Hayes-Day.

With one ceremony, at the country parsonage of Rev. W. S. Clark three miles west of Manchester, at five o'clock Sunday evening September 26, occurred the marriage of two Scott county couples. Rev. Clark, himself saying the magic words that mean so much to these estimable young people.

The contracting parties were Mr. John P. Taylor living on the old Whitney farm in Scott county who wedded Miss Mabel Day of near Alsey; and Mr. George H. Hayes residing northwest of Manchester, his life partner being Miss Nellie Myrtle Day. The brides are sisters—Reel-house Record.

Stevens-Bryan.

Friends in the city have received word of the marriage of Miss Hazel Bryan to Warren A. Stevens, the ceremony taking place Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Bryan in London, Ohio. They expect to reside in Columbus, Ohio. The bride taught for one year in the Illinois State School for the Deaf here.

John G. Hoover has completed a remarkable picture of Nichols park taken from an imaginary standpoint, a high elevation just north of the entrance thus giving a bird's-eye view of the whole park and the landscape beyond. The picture much resembles a water-color though Mr. Hoover calls it distemper. The colors are true to nature and the whole is a work of art which is deserving of much commendation. It is 18x26 inches and is very attractive. It clearly shows the pavilion and minor structures, lake, trees and all that pertains to the place so much frequented the past season.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

William N. Hairgrove has filed a suit in behalf of James Mueller directed against Mrs. Phoebe Mueller. The bill sets forth that the two were married in Newark, O., in the year 1890 and that they lived together until 1894. It is maintained that the wife deserted her husband at that time and on this ground divorce is sought.

THE RAINFALL MONDAY.

Twenty-one hundredths of an inch was the rainfall for Sunday night and Monday, as reported by G. H. Hail of Alexander in Sangamon county the rain was heavier and several Jacksonville automobile travelers were kept from returning Sunday night by the downpour.

ILLINOIS WANTS GAME THIS WEEK

COACH WILL TRY TO BOOK CONTEST FOR SATURDAY.

Three Squads Are in Daily Practice on Gridiron and Camp is All Astir With Football Spirit—New Men are Showing up in Good Style.

A visit to Coach Harmon's camp on the Illinois College campus will reveal a big football spirit. Everybody wants to play football, even to the third and fourth generations. It is doubtful if there ever was such an enthusiasm manifested among the students to chase the pigskin, since the beginning of the institution. The old men, most of them fresh from the harvest field and arena of hard labor, are back in the finest of physical condition. They jumped into their football togs, in true old fashioned warrior style and have 100 per cent of fighting spirit. Many of the new men have smelt the smoke of a football battle and they have flung themselves into the fray with vim and determination.

Coach Harmon was busy yesterday with three full teams in motion. The new men are being taught the different plays but as yet have been given no signals. The old guard looks the pink of condition and there is Zink, a Belleville new man, who tips the beam at 186. He has the ear marks all right. John Lane of Jacksonville, is out and is showing up well; LaRue of Ipava, is starting off his work in true style. He was working on the third team yesterday at full and he and Klausner of Shelbyville and Dugger of last year's scrubs as backs, were burning up the gridiron. Klausner seems to have ability as a punter; Houston is one of those willing workers and gets next quickly; Coach Harmon was fortunate in finding two good men from Springfield. Ray Wilson, a brother of Hansel Wilson, played center on the Springfield squad; Riefler played end. Mellor is trying out at tackle. He played that position on the champion Greenfield team last year. "Dick" Reynolds, a recruit from the Jacksonville high school, comes with a good experience at the quarter back position. Thus every man might have a paragraph but suffice to say "They're all on the job."

Wants Game Saturday.

Coach Harmon has telegraphed Eureka asking them if they can come here for a game Saturday as they have an open date then. The coach expects to get two or more games aside from the regular schedule. He also expects to get a string of games for the second team.

As stated above Coach Harmon had three teams at work. Naturally they are not picked for permanent positions but merely divided so that all can get the necessary experience. They were divided yesterday as follows:

First Team.

SPEND SUNDAY AT LAKE.

Forty students of Illinois Woman's college went to Lake Matanzas Saturday afternoon and returned on the 7:15 o'clock train Monday evening. Members of the junior and senior classes made up the party, which was accompanied by Miss Laura McLaughlin and Miss Jennie Anderson.

AUTO STRIKES BUGGY.

Frank Lindsey's car skidded while turning south from the square from East State street Sunday night and collided with a buggy owned by Claude Gross, residing east of the city. One wheel of the buggy was broken and the fender of the car was bent.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Theodore Van Ness, the veteran tinner, is reported seriously ill and has been taken to a local hospital for treatment.

SUNDAY'S OMAHA CONVERTS.

Omaha, Sept. 27.—Ninety-six trail hitters yesterday brought the total results of the first two weeks of the Sunday campaign up to 1,027 converts. The total attendance, according to close estimates, aggregates 225,000 an average of 16,000 per day.

Lawrence, Kan., Sept. 27.—The annual conference of the Society of American Indians will open here tomorrow and continue for a week. The meetings will be held at Haskell institute, and speakers will include men of national prominence, who are of Indian descent, among them U. S. Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas.

REV. FREDERIC B. MADDEN BEGINS PASTORATE AT GRACE M.E. CHURCH

Church-Going is Not on the Wane, Asserts Minister, and Men Yet Hunger For Spiritual Food—The Duty of the Gospel Preacher.

Large and attentive audiences assembled at Grace M. E. church Sunday to hear the new pastor, Rev. Frederic B. Madden, who spoke in the forenoon on "The Challenge of the Pulpit" and took as his evening text, "The Response of the Pew." "Men do not go to church to hear scientific discussion," said the pastor. "They go to receive spiritual food and to learn of the Christ," continued he, quoting the words of the apostle John, "Sir, we would see Jesus."

In the present age there is a great deal of cant and discussion about church-going and those who do not attend church, said Mr. Madden by way of introduction. In spite of the numbers who remain away from the house of God, the multitudes who do attend are greater now than ever before. It is not science that men and women go to church to hear, neither is it sociology nor economics. Not the temporizings of reform, but salvation and regeneration are the needs of the nations today. Those who fill the pews do not go to be entertained, though many a minister may have gained temporary popularity by lectures and programs of an entertaining nature. However filled with eloquence the minister may be people do not go to church to hear the preacher merely. They go "to see Jesus" and only insofar as the greatest mind and heart of all the ages speaks from the pulpit, will the pew find profit in the services of the church.

"I have a message from God unto Thee," read the pastor at the morning service in discussion of the theme, "The Challenge of the Pulpit." "God is a thinker but a rational and loving thinker to the extent only that man thinks over the thoughts of God, is he able to explain the universe and systematize its knowledge. Chaos results when God is left out. The preacher today is called to interpret God's messages to man. Respect for the minister's office is increasing while the old time reverence for solemn tones and pulpit dress through good fortune is declining.

"Other men are called to serve God as stewards with manifold gifts and righteousness. The preacher has only one business, to build the kingdom of God in the hearts of men and that chiefly by preaching.

"My personal ideal of a minister specially called of God is a man, holy, clean, pure, converted, industrious, scholarly, refined, fearless, tender, kind, gentlemanly and abounding in the grace of love as portrayed in that matchless poem the thirteenth chapter of first Corinthians.

"The message is of the first importance. It is out of the ordinary and is above all human thought. It is comprehensive, personal and is dis-ossion consideration is never the messenger but the message."

SOCIAL EVENTS

Queen Esther Girls Give Double Shower.

A miscellaneous shower for Miss Edytha Sargent and a kitchen rush for Miss Lulu M. Woodman were given Monday night at the home of Miss Ethel Ross, 226 Pine street, by members of Queen Esther circle of Grace M. E. church, to which both young ladies belong. Miss Ethlyn Andrews assisted Miss Ross in entertainment of the guests. Miss Woodman will be married soon to Chester Gaither of Winchester. Miss Sargent will leave next Friday for Taft, Calif., and there will become the bride of Robert Hughett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hughett, this city. Miss Woodman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woodman.

The showers for the bride-to-be were given at the conclusion of a regular meeting of the circle. Refreshments were served and the latter evening hours proved most enjoyable.

Surprise for Miss Christina Young.

The 11th birthday anniversary of Miss Christina Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young of Alexander, was the occasion Monday of a pleasant surprise party. The hours were from 4 to 6 and the event by all was thoroughly enjoyed. Misses Hester Andrews, Fannie Morrow and Harriet Six planned the surprise.

New-Way Wonder for Corns, "Gets-It"

The Big Surprise for Corn Owners.
It's Sure, Simple, Safe, Quick.

Listen to the wee story of "Gets-It," the world's greatest corn remedy. It's a short story—only about two feet—Mary had a little "Gets-It," and corns upon her toe; and every time she put on "Gets-It," the corn was sure to go. Mary, like thousands of others, used to be a heroine, suffering martyrdom, using painful bandages, irritating salves, sticky tape, toe-harnesses, blood-bringing razors and scissors. She says now there's no sense in it. Use "Gets-It," applied in 2 seconds. Easy, simple, new way—just painless common sense! Millions are doing it. Never fails. You can wear smaller shoes now. You don't need to limp around any more, or walk on the side of your shoes to try to get away from your corns! You know for sure before you use "Gets-It" that the corn or callus is going away. For corns, calluses, warts and bunions.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists. See a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn cure—by Armstrong's Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

"A Shine in Every Drop"

PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON EXTEND WELCOME TO GRAND ARMY MEN

Heroes of Fifty Years Ago Begin Encampment in National Capital—Estimates Place Attendance at 25,000 G. A. R. Men.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Not since the days of 1865 has Washington witnessed such an interesting arrival of visitors as the thousands of old veterans who reached the Grand Army encampment today. The coming and going of the world's notables have never affected the people of the capital to any noticeable degree. There have been notable days here, eventful days. But the return of the warriors of a half century ago, grizzled, bent and faded, yet light of heart and happy, has touched all hearts. There is a general outburst of welcome manifest in every face; the people of Washington have risen as one great family to receive back the heroes that left here a half century ago.

A bugle rang out at ten thirty this morning on the site of the old barracks at 15th street. It was the same bugle which rang out fifty years ago to the members of the United States Light Guard of Ohio, which served as the mounted escort of Abraham Lincoln, from December 1863, to the time of his assassination. Over a score of the troopers have returned, and they quietly held today their own reunion.

One of the most interesting groups arriving today were over ninety veterans who are employed in the Chicago post office, who are taking advantage of the leave of absence granted by President Wilson.

It is estimated this morning that fully 25,000 veterans will attend the encampment. Groups are arriving on every train, escorted by Sons of Veterans and ladies. Already fifteen to twenty thousand have arrived. Many will come later for the Grand Review on Wednesday.

General Nelson A. Miles announced that all arrangements for the reproduction of the Grand Review which was a great military triumph following the surrender of Lee, have been completed, and that 20,000 veterans will be in line. Thousands of motor cars and other vehicles have been offered for the comfort of the veterans in the line. All of the officers of the army and navy who served in the Civil War have been invited to ride with Gen. Miles at the head of the parade.

The largest United States flag in the world, the property of the city of Canton, O., the home of the martyred president McKinley, and which measures 53 1-2 feet by 120 feet, will be carried in the Grand Review, and will be given a place in the decoration of the rotunda of the Capitol. The Canton flag, with an escort of 75, will reach Washington tonight.

The feature of the encampment that is looked forward to with interest, is the prospect of a generous sprinkling of Confederate veterans. Many invitations have been issued, and some have been accepted.

Among the interesting guests of the encampment is a group of over twenty nurses who served in the Civil War. They are being cared for at the Hotel Gordon by the Associate Legion of Loyal Women. A corps of nurses have been provided to care for these aged visitors who rendered so many acts of mercy during the war.

While the Grand Army veterans have the center of the stage during encampment week, a number of important organizations allied with them are holding their annual sessions. These include the Sons of Veterans, the Women's Relief Corps, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary, the Daughters of Veterans, the American Woman's Press Association, the Daughters of the G. A. R., the Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War, the auxiliary of the Naval Veterans, and an organization of the Union ex-prisoners of war.

The veterans are today sight-seeing through the city. Many of them journeyed out to the old forts and barracks. Nearly all of them recalled some special spot that had been the scene of a memorable event away back in the sixties. Thousands of veterans journeyed today to the Pension Building, from which flows a constant stream of aid to them in their old age. A souvenir of the Pension Bureau will be presented to each veteran who comes to the Bureau, in the form of a pamphlet.

President Wilson will address the public reception to the veterans and their allied organizations, which will take place tomorrow evening. He will also review the big parade on Wednesday, standing directly over the spot on which President Johnson stood in May, 1865, when, with his cabinet and Generals Grant and Sherman, he inspected the grand review at the close of the Civil War, when the troops were mustered out. The president's reviewing stand is in front of the White House.

The first event of the encampment week was the dedication this morning of Camp Matthew G. Emery, in commemoration of the services of the first commander of Washington volunteers, who marched to the defense of the capital.

MISS BURSTED AFTER NEW LAURELS

Boston, Sept. 27.—Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the sensational tennis player from Norway, who won the national championship for women and other high tennis honors in America this summer, will be again pitted today against some of the best women of the east, in the tournament which opens today at the Longwood club. She will play in the singles and doubles, also in the mixed doubles with her principal opponent will be Mrs. George W. Wightman, who as Hazel Hotchkiss of California, was national champion, and who, with Harry Johnson, holds the national championship in mixed doubles.

INCINERATING PLANT FOR GARBAGE DISPOSAL PROPOSED

Council Will Give Project Serious Consideration When Next Appropriation Ordinance Is Built—Noise Record Near Passavant Hospital Causes Complaint.

At the session of the city council Monday morning the returns of the recent city election were canvassed and the totals were practically the same as those published as the unofficial count. An ordinance was read making some slight changes in the boundaries of election precincts in the fourth ward, and various matters of public interest were discussed.

S. W. Nichols and F. E. Farrell on behalf of the executive board of Passavant hospital presented a noise record kept at the hospital for twenty-four hours. The noise made by trains and by vehicles passing the hospital was recorded, the purpose being to give evidence of the annoyance and inconvenience caused patients at the hospital. In a number of cities there are ordinances in effect which regulate noise in large degree. Railroad locomotives must use the whistle and bell as signals, but it is not deemed necessary to use as much steam as has been customary in the past. The record for the twenty-four hours mentioned indicates that there is some noise annoyance almost every minute of the day and night. The matter was referred to Mr. Martin for his investigation.

Mr. Widmayer for the finance department reported that warrants for election expenses would be ready soon and that preparations were being made to secure cash on approved bills. He said he would notify persons having bills just as soon as the bills have been checked and approved. Mr. Cox reported street work being done and mentioned that the sweeping of West State street and other streets in the business district was interfered with by automobiles left standing for a long period. He thought that some place should be provided where these cars could be parked and thus not interfere with the street work or with other traffic. Mr. Rodgers and Mr. Martin suggested that the sweeping could be done at night—that is, in the business district. The mayor said that the street work could be adjusted to business conditions, and he believed that if the machine sweeping was done at night that the expense would not be greatly increased. Mr. Vasconcellos reported that all leaky hydrants were being repaired and put into condition for the winter season. He mentioned that the report on the test wells at the north side station would be ready some time this week and Mayor Rodgers said that Mr. Layne, representative of the company which has been doing the experimental work, will make a report on the conditions found and a statement as to what may be expected from wells.

An ordinance was read making some changes in the boundaries of voting precincts Nos. 9, 10 and 12 in the fourth ward. This was given a first reading and will be passed at the next meeting. The boundaries as now proposed are as follows: Precinct No. 9: beginning at the corner of State street and Diamond street, thence west to the city limits on State street, south to Mound avenue east to Park street, north to Grove street, east to Diamond street thence north to the place of beginning.

Precinct No. 10: beginning at the intersection of Mound avenue and the city limits, thence south to the city limits, east to Lincoln avenue, south to Michigan avenue, east to South Diamond street, north to Grove street, west to Park street, south to Mound avenue and west to the place of beginning.

Precinct No. 12: beginning at the corner of South Diamond street and West College street, south to Chambers street, east to South Main street, north to College street, west to the place of beginning. In all instances the lines run on the street centers.

Sylvester Arbuckle and A. Holt, who are licensed scavengers, were present to make complaint because of the difficulty they have in reaching the city dumping ground. Complaint has been made in this matter repeatedly and nothing but temporary relief has been given. It seems that refuse matter is dumped indiscriminately in the lot and because of this fact and the further fact that the road approaching the grounds is in very bad condition, the men who do scavenger work find it almost impossible to haul a load. Mayor Rodgers referred the matter to Mr. Cox and Mr. Martin, and at the same time mentioned that he is heartily in favor of an incinerating plant which will solve in large measure the question of garbage disposal. He said that nothing could be done with reference to such a plant now but that he would be in favor of taking it into consideration when the next appropriation ordinance is made and providing a fund from which a plant can be built here.

LITERBERRY.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ennis of Cedar Cottage had a new Round Oak stove placed in their sitting room last Saturday by the stove-man from the city of Virginia.

Rev. F. C. Crabtree preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning, on the subject "Prayer". In the evening his subject was "Come and See".

Rolla Smith of Magnolia avenue, moved his family and household goods to the tenant house of John Kennedy, in the Scotland neighborhood, north of Arcadia, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Durrell Crum of "Allegretto" were riding Sunday in a beautiful new Maxwell car.

Mrs. Murray has a badly sprained knee, which gives her a good deal of trouble; her many friends are hoping this will be of short duration.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Petefish of Golden Green are visiting friends at Rock Bridge, Ill.

We are under obligations to Mrs. Melissa Paul, of Rose Bower, for a fine lot of grapes left at our office last Wednesday.

Visitors at Sunshine Cottage on Sunday were, Mr. Howard Rentchler and three daughters, Louise, Lucretia and Hazel.

Walter McCarty of Concord, W. L. McCarty of Arenzville, W. B. Henderson and daughter Pauline of Arcadia; these friends came up to Litterberry in Mr. Rentchler's Empire car. C. P. Henderson of Shady Oaks was also a caller.

Wednesday morning Mr. McCarty cranked the old 1910 Mitchell car, and we, in company with Mrs. Scribner and Wiley, started to "Broad Acres" for a visit, in accordance to a long standing invitation from Aunt Mat and Louis Smith, there, to meet Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Willard of Mt. Zion neighborhood.

After passing through several bad mudholes we arrived at the neighborly home of Mr. and Mrs. Wall Mason of Maple View. We had a nice little visit here with our old neighbors and congratulated them on the pretty boy that arrived a few days before; we were shown a fine large baby boy, the picture of health, and very good looking. Mrs. Mason and child are doing nicely. Having had experience in the black mud of the push-mud neighborhood before reaching the Mason home, and knowing the erratic disposition of big Indian in the pernicious habit it has, to overflow the public highway west of the Valley farm, we sent a "phone inquiry" to Mrs. Alice Charlesworth and found roads not very favorable. Just here, Mr. Mason tendered us the use of a horse and buggy to finish our journey, and proceeded to hitch up a Nutwood filly to a good buggy, with a guarantee that she would carry us safely through all difficulties, there and back. We were perfectly satisfied with the guarantee, but kept our eye on the filly. We left Mrs. Scribner and son at Maple View and started for our destination and arrived in good time, where we found our kinfolks well and hearty. Aunt Mat is a girl of ninety years and spry and active, a good talker and a "dyed in the wool" Democrat. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Willard arrived about eleven o'clock. About forty years ago we met Mr. Willard near Arenzville, but Miss Willard was a new acquaintance, and we found her to be a charming woman, just as intelligent as her husband and a good conversationalist.

The noonday feast was gotten up by Mrs. L. B. Smith, superintended by Aunt Mat; the chicken was done to a turn, the mashed potatoes were like snow, the pie, cake and preserves were excellent, in fact, the dinner was the best ever. Aunt was afraid we would not enjoy her dinner after eating so many of the Litterberry dinners, of which she had read in the Journal, but we assured her that her cooking and serving would compare in all respects to the Litterberry feasts. About 12 o'clock Brother A. L. Cain of Concord stepped in; the fact is, this M. P. minister smelled the aroma of the coffee and chicken all the way from Concord and made a bee line for Aunt Mat's dining room, where he was made welcome. Other guests were L. B. and Sydney, sons of Mrs. Smith. After dinner Louis brought out some old time pictures of some of the dear old ancestors. We had a very interesting time recalling days and persons, past and gone. We found our relatives, the Willards, good clever people and made a date for a visit in the near future. They called

RED SOX DOWN BROWNS IN LAST HOME GAME

APPROACH WITHIN TWO GAMES OF CLINGING FLAG.

Boston Settles Contest in the Seventh by Timely Hitting and by Taking Advantage of the Weakness of Both Sides and Wellman.

Boston, Sept. 27.—The Red Sox closing the season on their home grounds with a victory today approached within two games of clinching their claim to the championship. Two more Boston wins, two Detroit losses or a Red Sox victory and a Tiger defeat will decide the race in Boston's favor. The Browns found Leonard off form and took the lead with three runs in the second inning, assisted by Lewis' error. Boston scored two in the third on a pass, Scott's double and Gainer's hit and tied the score in the fourth through Sisler's wildness and Wagner's double. St. Louis again took the lead in the fifth inning when Sisler and Shotten singled, Howard was hit and Sisler scored on Lee's sacrifice fly.

Boston settled the contest in the seventh by timely hitting and by taking advantage of the wildness of both Sisler and Wellman who succeeded him.

Chicago 6; Philadelphia, 5.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—Chicago won the final game of its series with Philadelphia. With the game won Scott eased up in the ninth and Philadelphia scored three runs on two hits, three passes and Weaver's fumble. Eccles was knocked out of the box in the third inning and Morrisette who finished the game allowed by one hit in the remaining six innings. Chicago won every game it played in Philadelphia this year.

CHICAGO WINS DOUBLE BILL FROM CINCINNATI

VICTORIES PULL CUBS OUT OF LAST PLACE.

First Game is Won in Eighth Inning . . . When George Weakens—Chicago Gets Early Lead in Second and Wins Easily.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Chicago pulled out of last place today by winning both games of a double header from Cincinnati. The first game was won in the eighth inning when George weakened and the locals bunched four hits with two bases on balls. In the second game Chicago got the jump on the visitors by hitting Snyder hard in the first inning and piling up a lead which could not be overcome.

MORNING GLANCES.

The Cubs got out of last place yesterday by defeating Cincinnati two games. In the first game the Cubs won by bunting hits off of George in the eighth, in the second game the Cubs made four runs in the first inning which were more than enough to win. The two games were the only ones played in the National league.

The White Sox continued to win yesterday when they again defeated Philadelphia by a score of 8 to 5. Philadelphia made ten hits off of Scott but could not bunt them except in the ninth when Scott eased up a little. The Sox have the record of winning every game played in Philadelphia this season.

Boston won from St. Louis yesterday by a score of 8 to 4. The victory put the Red Sox within two games of clinching the American league flag. The Brown as in previous games in the series gave the coming champions a hard run for the money and hit Leonard hard in the second and fifth innings. Sisler's wildness had much to do with the defeat of St. Louis.

St. Louis beat Buffalo yesterday 3 to 2. The teams tied in the fourth with two runs each and it was not until the ninth that St. Louis finally pushed over the winning run on a pass and two singles.

Ty Cobb pulled a bone yesterday in the game with Washington by trying to steal third base when Bush occupied that bag. He was put out trying to get back to second and objected so strenuously that Wallace put him out of the game. It isn't often that Cobb pulls a bone but he probably is anxious to reach the century mark in stolen bases.

The Whales defeated Brooklyn yesterday 5 to 0. Bailey only allowed Brooklyn three hits while Chicago hit F. Wilson and Upham for eleven safeties.

Cleveland beat New York again yesterday, making the series three out of four in her favor. Mitchell pitched good ball in the pinches while Russell and Brown were both hit hard, Cleveland getting a total of thirteen hits.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic

is the best hair tonic on the market—50c a bottle. Sold only by us.

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsed coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsed coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

FRANK E. DRURY CONDUCTS HOG BUSINESS ON EXENSIVE SCALE

Usually Feeds More than a Thousand at a Time—Equipment at His Beautiful Country Home Is of Most Approved Type.

The Swine World, one of the largest and best known publications devoted to the hog raising industry, recently published a Panama-Pacific "Feeding Hogs by the Thousand" by Frank E. Drury of this county, who has taken place during recent years as one of the largest and most successful feeders in the country. At his beautiful Woodlawn farm in the Orleans neighborhood Mr. Drury feeds usually more than thousand hogs at a time. He has equipment commensurate with the large scale on which he carries on the business. Several silos are included and the self feeder has a capacity of 4000 bushels of corn. The improvements are of the most substantial type, concrete entering largely into the construction. The article is accompanied by half tones of Mr. Drury and his home, the silos, self feeder, central high house and a group of pigs.

The interesting article follows: Of the many problems before the American agriculturists of today, there are few of greater importance to the livestock and grain farmer than the problem of production, and his motto should be, "The greatest number of pounds of produce for the market with the greatest conservation of the power of production." It is probably without question that the greatest power of pound production for the farm lies with the hog. With all its difficulties and backsets, hog raising is the most profitable, and the combination of grain and livestock farming seems to give the greatest conservation of farm fertility. Hence we are all studying and experimenting, with varied results, as to the best method of obtaining the greatest, quickest and surest returns.

Some of the varied points in connection with the study of the hog, are as follows: Methods of feeding, handling sows prior to farrowing, farrowing time, segregation, sanitation, vaccination, and finally, the best method for feeding and the best plan for marketing the pig.

Of course, the greatest troubles must be fought first, consequently, if we start out by immunizing our breeding herd, we will not only diminish our chance of loss in the herd, but also put a vigor and constitution in the offspring with at least some disease resisting power. However, we cannot always count on the pigs from immune dams and sires being immune, and the age at which they may be immunized is yet a question. Some authorities say seventy, some fifty pounds, some before and others after weaning. I am trying to obtain immunity still younger, and while the pigs are still getting the mother's milk. It remains to be seen, whether that is possible and even then, the question is an open one whether they outgrow that immunity. I believe they do, immunized too young, and yet, if they are not to be kept for breeding stock, the market hog would probably get off to market prior to such a possibility.

The breeding herd being immune, can be kept for several years to good advantage, unless one is very sure of the immunity of the younger sows. The plan to follow is to hold the immune stock until immunity is thoroughly established in the younger generation.

Now, as to feeding prior to farrowing time and a study of feeds calculated to develop the pig. Feeding a little light on corn, a good balance of protein, either of tankage or alfalfa, with plenty of exercise, and you arrive at farrowing time in pretty good shape, provided you have used high quality sires. Do not stand too many sows to the hog. I have been able to secure an average of a little over eight pigs, farrowed, marked and turned out on the grass for a hundred sows at a time, all of them being remarkable in their splendidly developed and well proportioned bodies. A will known breeder passed this comment: "Their long, strong bodies, well developed hams and shoulders, resembled fat hogs in miniature."

My plan at farrowing time is mainly the use of central hog houses that are also used the remainder of the year as feeded sheds, sleeping quarters, wagon shed, etc. I use a system of gates, six and seven feet long, made of No. 2 yellow pine, 1x4, making a stall six by seven feet, and easily wired together with the farmers' friend, "the baling wire." This row of pens, in any driveway or shed, leaves a nice alleyway for handling sows and caretaking. The pens are easily removed and being on a concrete floor, are cleaned and disinfected, and can be used again for general sleeping quarters. When ready to move to grass, I use a small shed, four feet wide by eight feet long, solid ends, and gates wired on sides, holding two sows and their litters nicely.

Selecting litters of the same age, I take them, marked and dipped, to the grass, placing in portable hog houses, located in as many different places as possible, and confine them there sufficient time to overcome the young pigs' homing instinct, which is very strong, and has been known to take whole litters from their mother and good bed, back over roads over which they had been hauled a distance of miles to their birthplace, there to die of starvation. A little over a day generally accomplishes this result, and the shed or hog automobile, as we call it, comes in handy with a couple of barrels of water to care for them, while so confined. This segregation as to age and

LAND O'NOD STORIES

TINKER WORKS SOME MAGIC

"I never knew that ants lived in a city," said Billy Be By Bo Bum.

"Where is it Tinker?"

"Deep under ground," replied Tinker Teedle Tee, "but you have often seen the gate that leads down to it, only you thought it was nothing but an 'ant hole.' Now how would you like to take a journey to Antland and see for yourself how the Little People live in their underground city?"

"Oh, I would like it very much indeed," replied Billy. "But how in the world can a big boy like me get into an ant hole?"

"You just leave that to me," answered Tinker Teedle Tee. "An elf knows lots of secrets and ways of doing things that they don't teach you in school. But first we must hunt up my old friend Jack-in-the-Pulpit and let him give us some fairy dust so I can work a little magic. Come on, Billy Boy, we'll go hunt up the old fellow and then I'll have you in Antland almost before you can say Jack Robinson," and the merry little elf spread his wings and darted into a clump of bushes.

I'm Tinker Teedle Tee

And if you'll follow me, I'll show you lots of fun.

We will go with the ants To their home underground

And see how their city is: an sang the merry little elf as he scurried through the bushes in search of Jack-in-the-Pulpit.

"Here we are," shouted Tinker a few minutes later, and sure enough tucked away almost out of sight under a bush, Billy saw Jack-in-the-Pulpit nodding his head in welcome.

"Good morning Jack," said Tinker Teedle Tee, but the flower nodded its head harder than ever. So Tinker climbed up the stalk and, standing on the edge of the pulpit purple whispered something to the little yellow flower inside. Of course Billy could not hear what Tinker said, but Jack must have understood, for he nodded his yellow head at a great rate. In fact, he nodded so hard that a cloud of golden dust floated from his head onto the edge of the pulpit.

number, for a few weeks, is to my mind very important. I make my portable houses seven by fourteen, divided by movable gates in center, for use at farrowing time, when necessary or convenient, each house holding four sows and litters after farrowing. Houses are two and one-half feet high at back, five feet in front, with hinge door to let down at top in front to admit sunlight; also hinge door to raise up at bottom, to make better general quarters after farrowing. A very great improvement in this house is found in placing the bottom cross rail at ends, six inches high and making a one by six hinge door the width of the building. Houses so made are easy to move, and have good ventilation for summer shed room. When penning the sows at farrowing time, it is a good plan to spray with either dip or crude oil, to dispose of any lice that may be ready to bother the pigs.

Then, again, when marketing and moving to grass, give all another spraying, thus starting them out square with the world on that score. It is needless to say that the centrally hog houses all have concrete floors, slope to take moisture from the shed and arranged to admit all the sunlight obtainable.

Now, piglets are on the grass in colonies of numbers, according to size and ability to separate. I feed very light on corn for a few weeks. The mothers have had a sloop during farrowing time of about one-third corn, some tankage and milk feed of what we raise, wheat, rye, oats, etc., ground at home. I gradually increase the corn and tankage up to full feed. A little later I fix a creep to the self feeders of each, and ration the sows according to grass. The pigs have come to grass free of lice and to keep them so, and to prevent handling, dipping, etc., which we consider loses at least a day's feed, if a sand bath of crude oil in some shed or shady place for them to wallow in; they do the rest; waiting in turns, it seems, they like it so well. By having small portable feeders, that hold about a load of shelled corn, it makes it convenient to carry these pigs with the colony idea, while on the grass, and thus scatter the manure over the farm and at the same time, keep away from the dust of the lots.

At all times, keep self-feeders of a mineral mixture, such as slack coal, lime, sulphur, copperas, salts, etc., in the best proportions attainable; also lime in water tanks and possibly copperas, as well as at times feeding salt in the hog fountains.

From the grass in the summer, fix a slip gate for pigs to steal into the cornfield. It does not seem to hurt the hog so much when he thinks he is stealing. Still continue the old corn, so as not to make too sudden a change of feed.

As the weather changes, and the hogs have cleaned up as many acres of corn as is practical I take them back to the central hog house, which with gates removed, is now the big self-feeder which has at least the point made by the Indiana Experiment Station, that the size of the feeder is a point in elimination of labor. My feeder holds nicely four thousand bushels of shelled corn, and every grain is alive and feeds to the hog. With a good circulation of air under and over the grain and as it feeds from top down, there is no danger of spoiling as long as they

"That you Jack, that is just what we wanted. I'll do you a good turn one of these fine days, see if I don't," said the elf as he dropped to his knees and carefully brushed up the golden dust and tied it up in his tiny handkerchief. Then he spread his wings and darted off through the bushes. Billy followed as fast as he could, and in two jerks of a lamb's tail they were back again under the old apple tree where the ants were still feasting on Billy's cookie.

"Now then, Billy Be By Bo Bum, I'll show you a trick with a hole in it," said Tinker as he took off the weeny copper kettle he wore for a hat. "But first I must get some fairy water with which to mix my magic brew," and he ran to a big bluebell and shook the slender stalk so hard that several drops of dew rolled out of the flower's heart and splashed into the copper kettle. Tinker ran to another bluebell and did the same thing and kept it up until his hat was filled to the brim with clear, sparkling dew.

"Ho, little glow worms, lend me your fire," shouted Tinker as he hung the kettle up on a twig, and would you believe it, a dozen fat, shiny glowworms crawled out of the grass and piled themselves under the kettle, where they glowed so brightly that it looked for all the world as though the pot was resting on a bed of hot coals, and in a jiffy the dew was boiling. Then Tinker jumped in the fairy dust he had got from Jack-in-the-Pulpit and stirred it up with a tiny black wand he pulled from the pocket of his coat.

"Thank you, kind glowworms, that will do very nicely," said Tinker when the magic brew had boiled several minutes, and the fire crawled away through the grass.

"Now Billy Be By Bo Bum, drink this cup of fairy tea, and be sure you don't leave a single drop," said the elf.

So Billy picked up the kettle and drained it at one swallow, and it wasn't a very big swallow either, for the kettle didn't hold as much as his Mother's thimble. And as he drained the last drop, a wonderful thing happened, and I'll tell you all about it next week.

are using in sufficient numbers. A car load can eat at a time and ten car loads may get their fill. With the concrete floor sloping away from the trough, the sunlight shining right on the floor and in the trough through the glass windows all winter, the furnace heating the drinking water for both hogs and cattle, a hard floor, to save the fertilizer enabling us to get it right out on the ground all winter, the use of hydrate lime as a disinfectant after cleaning, Mr. Piggle has taught to do now, but do justice to balanced ration of corn and tankage.

As to results. Last year, I had something over nine hundred hogs on the market all of my own raising and feeding. They averaged three hundred and seventeen pounds on the market at a little over an average of ten months of age.

This year with eleven hundred head on hand, five hundred went out before the break in the market last fall, bringing twelve dollars each. They were May pigs. The rest I immunized and they have been going to market at an average of three hundred and seventy pounds before any of them saw a birthday.

The dressing sheet on these hogs in market proved out a fraction less than eighty-four per cent, while the average market hog dresses about eighty per cent, and one percent is equal to seventeen cents per one hundred pounds on the market.

As to the type of hogs to handle, there are many good kinds. My plan has always been a pure bred male and a grade sow. The cross makes a very large type porker. However, having had nearly all breeds and studying them carefully, I find I am more and more tending to the Duroc and the Poland, with a little favor of the red hog, but I notice that the red and black spotted hogs are among my best individuals.

I have some of the best herd boars obtainable of both types and have compared results with my friends, who go to market with about as many hogs as I do, and I find that those that have the near pure bred Durocs came so close to my results that I feel that if I were to settle to any one type, it surely would be the large rugged Duroc. They are good mothers, great rustlers, grow to great finishers. As an all around farm porker, they prove good, at least in large droves.

FISKE O'HARA'S NEW

PLAY IS "KILKENNY"

Augustus Pitou, Jr. will present the favorite tenor, Fiske O'Hara in a new comedy, "Kilkenny," by Augustus Pitou, Sr., at the Grand next Monday. The story is filled throughout with delightful Irish witticisms and humorous situations and will be played by an exceptionally clever company. Mr. O'Hara will sing several new songs written especially for this new play, among which may be mentioned, "That's What An Irishman Means," "Contrary Mary Clary," "Ireland is Ireland to Me," "Dear Mother Mine," and "When it's Moonlight in Mayo." Superb scenic effects and a wealth of beautiful costumes promise to make "Kilkenny" the most successful play Mr. O'Hara has appeared in.

Catarrh a Blood Disease S.S.S. Drives It From Your System

Because Catarrh affects the nose and throat, causing sores in the nostrils, stoppage of air-passages and gathering in the throat, it has been common practice to treat Catarrh by lotions, washes and sprays applied to these parts. This mode of treatment is entirely wrong. It cannot give permanent relief, and it is liable to irritate and aggravate the trouble. Catarrh cannot be trifled with. It allowed to run on it will disease the bronchial tubes, settle on the lungs, the stomach—indeed it is a very serious disease. Don't treat it locally. The fact that it causes headaches is proof that it is caused by impure and diseased blood. The one treatment that has proved effective in the treatment of Catarrh is S. S. S., Atlanta, Ga.

NEW PASTOR CALLED BY PEOPLE OF WESTMINSTER CHURCH

Dr. William I. Alexander of Grand Island, Neb., Asked to Lead the Church—Has Done Successful
Work Ever Since He Entered Ministry.

A meeting of the members of Westminster church was held Sunday morning following the regular service, when a call was extended to
Dr. William I. Alexander of Grand
Island, Nebraska. Rev. W. E.
Spoonts occupied the pulpit of the church and preached a very strong sermon emphasizing the necessity of growth in the spiritual life and pointing out the need there is for food for the soul if there is to be any growth.

Following the service, Rev. Mr.
Spoonts acted as moderator of the meeting. After some discussion of the financial affairs of the church, without a dissenting voice the congregation asked that the call be forwarded to Dr. Alexander. At a previous meeting it had been agreed that the call should be extended and forwarded at some later date. It is very likely that the call will be accepted as Dr. Alexander, who was here in August and occupied the pulpit of the church two Sundays, in response to inquiry of the supply committee intimated that he would accept the charge if a call was extended.

Dr. Alexander was born at Franklin, Ind., and many Jacksonville people will remember that it was in the Presbyterian church in that city that Dr. A. B. Morey began his ministry. Dr. Alexander is a graduate of Lane Seminary of Cincinnati, and his first pastorate, which extended over a period of ten years, was at Argyle, in a large community church in the Freeport presbytery. Then he was at Elmira as the pastor of another strong community church in the Peoria presbytery. There he did especially strong work along missionary lines. His third pastorate was at the First Presbyterian church of Atchison, Kans., where the membership was much increased,
a $5000 organ installed and a $15,- 000 addition made to the church during his pastorate. He spent three years there and then went to Grand Island, Neb., where he is at the present located. This city is the third in Nebraska in point of population.
The church has prospered since he has been there and there have been noticeable increases in the Sunday School attendance.

The investigation of Dr. Alexander's work by the Westminster committee indicated that the pastor who has been called is an especially hard worker and is very active in the matter of calling and keeping in close touch with his parishioners. In the pulpit he speaks without notes and with a style which indicates a wide range of thought and study. The church of which he has charge in Grand Island is larger than Westminster, but Dr. Alexander has two daughters ready for college and he would like to locate in some city with educational advantages. In addition to this fact he wishes to be nearer his parents, living in Indiana,
who are now quite old.

Mrs. Alexander was an honor graduate of Wheaton college and had prepared herself with the intention of entering the foreign missionary field.
Subsequently plans were changed and she became a co-worker in the home field. She is a superior worker among women and young people. The Westminster people who heard Dr. Alexander's sermons and who met him were all enthusiastic in the belief that he would make a splendid pastor for Westminster church, and they are naturally now quite anxious to hear from him since the call has been extended. In event of its acceptance
it will be several weeks before Dr.
Alexander and family can come to Jacksonville, as in accordance with Presbyterian usage it will be necessary for some action to be taken by the presbytery of Nebraska as well as by the presbytery here. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander have four children.

BACK FROM THE NORTH.

Douglas Story, of Manchester, has returned from North Dakota where he has been for some time working for William Galloway, of Woodson.
Mr. Galloway had twelve hundred acres of land rented and had nine hundred acres of small grain, mostly wheat, with some barley, oats and a little flax. The wheat yielded quite well going from ten to thirty-two bushels to the acre. The oats also yielded well. Before Mr. Story left the grain was all cut and about all threshed. Mr. Galloway had 12,000 bushels of wheat and 4,000 bushels of oats. The wheat all graded well and brought from 75 to 83 cents a bushel and the oats brought 25 cents. The oats were a white variety and Mr. Story said a measured bushel averaged 44 pounds which is remarkable as the general rule is 33 to 34 pounds to the bushel. He didn't know the name of the oats but said they were a large white variety.

WILL ATTEND I. O. O. F. DISTRICT MEETING.

The district meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be held in Rushville today. A number from here expect to attend the meeting. The trip will be made by automobile if the roads are good. If not the Burlington will be taken to Beardstown and arrangements have been made to transport the party from there to Rushville. Among those who will go are Ellis Henderson, Ralph Crabtree, Clint Moore, F.
M. Brewer, J. Edgar Martin, Em-met Miller, T. M. Tomlinson, Stansfield Baldwin and Herman Weber.

NEVER GOT BACK WITH THE GOODS.

Sunday a man by the name of Evans reported to the chief of police that he had been "gold bricked." It seems that Evans, who is from the country, asked Frank Rogers to get him a half pint of whiskey. Rogers readily agreed and Evans says
he gave him a five dollar bill. Then Rogers said that he would have to go a considerable distance for the goods and Evans says that he gave him a "jitney" to ride on the street car. After waiting a reasonable time for Rogers to show up Evans went to the station and made his report. The chief told him he was sorry that he could not do anything for him.

WILL VISIT PROPERTIES.

H. E. Chubbuck, vice-president executive of the McKinley system, will visit Jacksonville in the early part of next week to inspect the local company properties. Mr. Chubbuck has not been in Jacksonville since the new boiler house and ice plant were completed. He expects to inspect these new plants and also all of the other property. The fact that the company has spent about $185,000 in improvements without Mr. Chubbuck being on the ground shows that he has confidence in the local management. It is probable that while Mr.
Chubbuck is in the city he will take up the matter of paving and also he may talk over the status of franchises with the city administration.

Miss Frances McCarthy has returned to her home in Winchester after a visit with Miss Marie McCarthy.

We Second the Motion.

Through press servises, the culture of commerce, motored by inventive genius, coupled with activity, are mutually invited to visit our well regulated Village. It is said, noise is not a thinker. A bolt against a fixed object is evidence a recoil, sick men seek relief, not a remedy, experience has taught rabble talk seldom achieves,
and only he who achieves is faulted by cries of Crusify him &c; yet with all faulted methods may become the forum of civilization.—Joseph F. Wonder, Mayor of Carey.—Cary (O.) Times.

Sad!

There was an old lad named Antone,
Who wouldn't leave bug juice alone.
On Saturday night
He'd get good and tight,
And on Sunday and Monday he'd bone.

Things to Worry About.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

Our Daily Special.

We all know how to do a thing better than the man who is doing it.

Luke McLuke Says:

The bride often turns out to be the best man at the wedding, but the groom doesn't find it out until later on.

The old fashioned bashful young man who would call on a girl for seven months and fidget around trying to work up enough courage to hold her hand now has a son who meets a girl at 8:30 p. m. and is engaged to her and has her on his lap at 9 p. m.

The world may renege on other things,
but you can bet that you will get your full share of criticism.

The silks sported by an affinity may dazzle a man when he is flush and out joy riding, but his wife's old apron sure looks good when he is broke and nursing a big head.

Men like to talk about the women swapping gossip. But the truth of the matter is that every wife pities a lot of other married women because of things her husband has blabbed about the other women's husbands.

Cheer up! Maybe you are not as badly off as you imagine. Many a wealthy man would give a whole lot to be able to carry your appetite into a dining room.

He may grudge her other things, but a man is usually willing to let his wife have all the religion in the family.

Maybe if the 1915 June bride would take a good look at some of the 1900 models she wouldn't feel quite so sure that she isn't going to get fat and sloppy looking like her mother.

Before he gets her he likes to bury his face in her fragrant hair. After he gets her he cusses a blue streak every time he discovers one of her hairs in the comb.

INDICTMENTS FOR EXPORT FRAUD.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 27.—One of the most daring of export frauds is charged by the Federal grand jury in its indictments returned against Albert Le More and Edward E. Carriere, bankrupt stove exporters of this city and Mobile. When their firms failed, the transactions that came to light involved hundreds of thousands of dollars. A score of bankers, both in America and Europe, were caught with false bills of lading and bills of exchange. The plan of the two men, as charged in the indictment, was to obtain from the steamship companies false and fraudulent bills of lading for stoves that were not delivered to the steamship companies for shipment. Le More and Carriere were to draw against each of the bills of lading a draft, or bill of exchange, on a banking house at Marseilles, France, or some other firm. The two men are charged with endorsing the drafts or bills of exchange and offering them to banking concerns, and it is alleged they pretended the bills represented actual shipments and were evidence of title thereto.
There are twenty counts in the indictment returned on Sept. 13, each count representing a separate transaction.

SHE HAS "HYPNOTIC EYE."

Lindsay (Cal.) Man Complains Against Wife.

Lindsay, Cal.—Alleging that his wife, Mrs. Mary Perry, has a "hypnotic eye"
and that for the past year she has exercised a malign influence over him, Wesley E. Perry, a rancher, swore to a complaint for the arrest of Mrs. Perry and asked that she be detained at the county jail until an examination can be made into her mental condition.

Mrs. Perry made a statement to the officers following her arrest, in which she declared her husband is "half insane" and that he, instead, should be locked up and examined by the county alienists.

New Automobile Fuel.

London.—Attention has been called in England to another new motor fuel called "nata-lite," for which excellent results and low price are claimed. It is said to be composed mostly of alcohol, and the mixture contains a small quantity of alkali for the purpose of neutralizing the acidity of the products of combustion of the alcohol, which otherwise would cause corrosion of the valves and cylinders.

Send Your Collars to Us if You want them to last. We guarantee to increase the wearing life of your collars one-third Doesn't this mean something to you? It Should.

Collars sent to us are molded on our Prosperity Molding machine instead of being ironed in the old way. The new method preserves them because it doesn't break down the edges.

Not only are collars taken care of as they should be in our Laundry, but the same careful attention is given to all fabrics—from cotton to fine linens. Your satisfaction is our success.

We are particularly anxious to show you the manner in which we turn out those fancy silks and dress shirts.
We keep them looking like new and so they fit like they did when new.

Now is the time to consider the handling of your family washings. We handle them as cheaply as you can do them at home, saving you all the fuss, bother and risk from colds and illness in the family. Rough dry, all flat worked ironed, only five cents a pound. Call us up about this and let us give it a trial.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

LARGE RECEIPTS IN NORTHWEST RENDER WHEAT PRICES HEAVY

Corn is unsettled at a Net Loss—Corn and Oats Drop, But Provisions Show a Gain.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Wheat prices declined today, rendered heavy by the largest receipts so far this season in the American and Canadian northwest. Although unsettled at the close, quotations were ¼ to ¾ net lower with December at 94c and May at 96½c.

Corn finished ¼ to ¾ down and oats off ¼ to ¾ but provisions up 5 to 30c.

Total fresh arrivals of wheat today at the various markets in North America were estimated as amounting to the huge aggregate of 8,000,000 bushels. In this connection it was said that rural elevators in the northwestern states now held 20,000,000 bushels a sufficient supply to furnish for some time liberal receipts at the leading spring crop terminals. Nevertheless, except in the September option here the depression of values was less pronounced than might have been looked for, the fact being that notwithstanding the heavy movement the accumulation of stocks at big centers was not yet up to what a majority of traders appeared to expect. As a result the May and July deliveries, although finally giving way, held for a considerable interval at a moderate advance over Saturday night's level.

Wet weather and a forecast of more tending somewhat to make the wheat bulls stubborn. Besides a fair export demand was evident at the seaboard. Mediterranean countries in particular, were reported as having purchased flour with a freedom that was quite unusual.

Con like wheat was bearishly affected by enlarged receipts. Cool temperatures appeared to be more or less offset by reports of Argentine shipments reaching New York in excellent condition.

In oats the smallness of offerings seemed to make prices relatively steady compared with the quotations of Saturday.

Thirty-Fifth Anniversary Cash Sale

For the Entire Week, Ending Saturday, October 2nd

September 25th marked the beginning of our 35th year in business. Looking back over these years, it is gratifying to credit our growth, in part at least, to our constant endeavor to treat patrons fairly at all times. It is our belief that a store merits trade in the proportion that it better serves the people—and we accept the patronage of our loyal customers as a hearty endorsement of our store policy. On the 35th anniversary of our first sale day we want to express our appreciation to the many customers who have made it possible for us to steadily progress in our service to the community. Every department is ready for this event. The jobbing houses of New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and Boston, are in touch with us in this great yearly event and you will find startling price reductions from basement to third floor.

"NOW SO HAPPY,"

WOMAN SAYS.

Mrs. K. S. Reisinger of Decatur Tells How Tanlac Relieved Her.

PRAISES MEDICINE.

"I am so happy," Mrs. K. E. Reisinger, of Decatur, said recently to her friends, when discussing Tanlac, the new preparation now being introduced in Jacksonville, and the wonderful results she has obtained from the use of the "Master Medicine." Mrs. Reisinger resides at 331 North Edwards street, Decatur, Illinois, and has a host of friends in this vicinity.

"I feel like a different woman," she continued, "for the medicine has done me a great deal of good. I have been troubled with my stomach and indigestion for some time. Before I began taking Tanlac, it was difficult for me to prepare a meal without the odor of the food making me sick. My appetite fell off and the little things that I did relish did not seem to agree with me very well. I finally reached a place where I could not sleep at night and when I would get up in the morning I would feel all tired out and sometimes quite weak. "I saw Tanlac advertised and decided to try a bottle though I must confess that I did so with great misgivings, as I had tried a number of other remedies and had obtained only temporary relief. Much to my surprise after I had taken the first bottle I began to feel better. In a few days my appetite had improved and I was able to eat a hot and good meal with great relish. I am no longer restless at night but sleep as peacefully as a baby and feel refreshed and bright when I arise in the morning. "I am so happy that I want everyone to know of my case and to know of the good Tanlac did me. I am more than glad to recommend this medicine to all my friends and to all others who are suffering as I was."

Mrs. Reisinger's cure is typical of thousands of others in Illinois who have taken Tanlac with the most beneficial results.

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," is now being sold in Jacksonville at the drug store of Coover & Shreve. Adv.

VALUABLE RUBBISH.

Fortunes Made Now in What Was Once Looked Upon as Rubbish.

A gold mine in a refuse heap may sound strange, but it is a fact, for many things once considered mere waste are now a source of more wealth than an ordinary gold mine would yield.

In the earlier days of gas lighting the coal tar was regarded as a horrible nuisance and surreptitiously got rid of. Then the great discovery was made that all the hues of the rainbow dwelt in this dirty looking stuff which men despised and threw away. Today the byproducts of coal tar are counted by the scores.

In Lancashire alone cotton waste, once considered rubbish, has an annual value of $15,000,000. It consists of rag ends and sweepings and pickings and cobblings. Thousands of women are employed to divide this stuff into good, middling and bad, and it is sold at various prices for different purposes—papermaking, matting, surgical wadding and, most of all, the making of soap.

Soap boilers used to have great difficulty in getting rid of a thick, evil smelling liquid, which was the chief byproduct of their industry. They ran it into streams and sewers. Presently some one began collecting it and refining it. The result was pure glycerin.—London Answers.

INDIA'S GREAT POET.

Plain Living and High Thinking Rule His Existence.

In "Rabindranath Tagore," by Basanta Kumar Roy, is this picture of the simple life of the great poet and seer of India, who won the Nobel prize for literature:

"Tagore himself lives alone in a house. He gets up with the morning bell, sometimes before, and takes his morning bath, goes on the roof and loses himself in meditation for hours at a time. In this house he quite often cooks his own meals in an 'economic cooker.' He does not eat much. Boiled rice, boiled potatoes, cauliflower or beans, enough of butter are all that he craves to eat. He is not fond of milk or sweets. He takes long walks for exercise and is fond of gardening.

"Plain living and high thinking is the keynote of his life at Bolpur. He preaches to the boys and to the teachers twice a week in the temple. His love for the children is of an idealistic nature. At times one of them will steal into his room and watch him Adv.

some and move his head to and fro as he writes or thinks over a poem. One such boy startled him by exclaiming, 'That's how the madmen do.' "Yes, my child, poets are worse than madmen. When did you come into the room?"

Testing an Explosive.

One of the most dangerous of explosives is iodide of nitrogen, a black powder which the slightest touch will often cause to explode when dry with great violence. In experiments to determine the cause of its extreme explosiveness some damp iodide of nitrogen was rubbed on the strings of a bass viol. It is known that the strings of such an instrument will vibrate when those of a similar instrument having an equal tension are played upon. In this case, after the explosive had become thoroughly dry upon the strings, another bass viol was brought near and the strings sounded. At a certain note the iodide of nitrogen on the prepared instrument exploded. It was found that the explosion occurred only when a rate of vibration of sixty a second was communicated to the prepared strings. Vibration of the G string caused an explosion, while that of the E string had no effect.

The Siamese Topknot.

A Siamese child, whether boy or girl, wears its hair in a little topknot until it has attained the age of eleven or twelve years. On reaching this age the topknot cutting ceremony takes place. The child is dressed in its best, and amid much rejoicing of relatives and friends the topknot is cut, one lock at a time. The head is then completely shaved by the priests. All guests invited to the ceremony bring presents, usually money, which is carefully invested for the child by its parents or guardians. A young prince or princess will sometimes receive as much as $25,000 in presents at his or her topknot cutting ceremony, while a poor child may get $10 or $15.—Wide World Magazine.

The Red Squirrel.

When the red squirrel begins tapping maple trees for the sap the animal makes an incision in the bark and waits until the sap has trickled a short distance down the trunk of the tree. He then begins at the bottom of the stream and licks up until he has reached the source of the flow, when he again waits and repeats the performance until satisfied.

George Kimber, of Waverly, was in the city yesterday.

POLICE NEWS.

The police were kept busy Saturday night and Sunday and a number of arrests were made for various offenses.

Birdie Wagner swore out a warrant for Otis Wallace charging the carrying of concealed weapons and disturbing the peace. The warrant for carrying concealed weapons was a city warrant while the warrant for disturbing the peace was both city and state. It seems that Wallace has a dog and Mrs. Wagner also has one and the dogs want to fight all the time. Sunday the dog belonging to Mrs. Wagner took a piece out of Wallace's leg and he proceeded to shoot it. Hence the warrants. Chief Davis, who knows Wallace, advised that he go and make his peace with Mrs. Wagner and stop the warrants.

Forger Sent of Jail.

Lucien Meadows or probably better known as E. N. Meadows, the man who attempted to pass the check on Widmayer's East State street meat market Saturday night was arraigned in Justice Dyer's court Monday morning. The charge was obtaining money under false pretenses. He was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $200. In default of bond he was sent to the county jail.

Crap Shooters Arrested. Night Captain LaBoiteaux and Patrolman Sharps on Saturday night interrupted a little crap game in Armory hall. They arrested Mason Hudson, David Pierson and Fred O'Daffer.

Arrested for Bootlegging. John Doyle and Edward Corbridge were arrested Sunday on the charge of bootlegging. The warrants were sworn out on information filed by Chief Davis and the arrests were made by Patrolmen White, Baker and Vieira. They were bound over in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury.

Doyle also was arrested on the charge of interfering with an officer. He was taken before Justice Dyer and fined $20 and costs on the charge and will either have to pay or lay the fine out.

Kelly was before Justice Dyer Monday on the charge of drunkenness. He was assessed $3 and costs. Kelly has a sentence for vagrancy hanging over him and unless he is real careful in the future he probably will be sent to jail by the court on the charge of vagrancy.

P. J. Rose of Decatur was attending to matters of business in the city yesterday.

BLACK SQUAW WINS FEATURE AT SEDALIA GREAT WESTERN MEET

Jay El Mack Comes Within Half Second of the Rack Record in the First Heat.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 27.—In the first heat of the 2:09 pace, purse $1,000, at the Sedalia meet of the Great Western circuit, Jay El Mack, bay horse, driven by Wilson, came within a half second of the track record of 2:04 1/2, finishing the mile in 2:04 1/2. Black Squaw, black mare (Brightfield) won the race with Jay El Mack second; May Direct, (Taylor) finished third. Best time 2:04 1/2.

Three year old futurity trot, $500. Last sheet, won; Lola Axworthy, second; Della Swanson, third. Best time, 2:13 1/4.

Three year old futurity pace, $500. Missouri Earl, won; Zombros final, second; Lady Blocklock, third. Best time 2:15 1/4.

DAIRY CATTLE CONGRESS.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 27.—The sixth annual dairy cattle congress was opened here yesterday and will attract dairymen from far and wide all this week. This show although only six years old, is today recognized as one of the two great dairy exhibitions of the country. The Iowa State Dairy association will hold its convention in conjunction with the show. The program contains practical talks by the most prominent men connected with the dairy industry. Prizes to the amount of $1,600 will be given for butter, and special medals, trophies, etc., will be given for the other contests.

A unique innovation is a judging contest for boys and girls. The object is to create an interest and people in pure bred dairy cattle.

SOCIETY HORSE SHOW.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—The famous Eryn Mawr will have its opening on Tuesday, when the greatest display of horseflesh ever exhibited in Pennsylvania will be shown. The show will continue until October 2. Many new features have been added this year to the fall society horse show. There will be breeding and polo mount classes galore. The Hound Show association, comprising men of prominence from all over the United States, will hold its show in connection with hunters and cross-country horses.

The oldest brass band in America is at Williamsport, Pa. It is 84 years old, and had only one brass instrument at its start.

SET PRICES FOR PROSPECTIVE WORLD'S SERIES GAME AT EOSTON

Fifty Cents to Five Dollars Are Prices Announced by Red Sox Management—The Higher Price Will Be For Boxes.

Boston, Sept. 27.—The prospective world series games to be played at Braves Field next month may be seen at prices ranging from fifty cents to five dollars, according to an announcement by the management of the Boston American league baseball club today. The higher price will be for boxes. Other reservations in the grandstand will cost three dollars each. The number of seats which may be obtained by reservation has been increased by setting aside the stand which runs back of third base. These seats will sell at two dollars each. Tickets in these three classes will be sold in advance only in blocks of three, covering the first three games that may be played here. Applications have been pouring in for weeks and are being filled. Tickets for the right field bleachers at fifty cents each will be placed on sale at the grounds before the game. The seating capacity of Braves Field is now being checked to determine just how many persons can be cared for. No additional stands will be erected it was said.

NEW YORK TURNS

OUT ITS SOLDIERS.

New York, Sept. 27.—the extent of New York City's preparedness for defense in war is being shown today by the National Guard in the biggest local military display ever attempted. Every regiment of the guard in the city is in camp in Van Courtlandt Park. The men are in war trim and all the accessories of war are included in their equipment.

The National Guard was shown gripped over the enthusiasm built toward the camp of military instruction at Plattsburg, and the evolutions today are a demonstration of just what the National Guard can do. One of the officers said: "Most of the men who received a few days instruction feel that they are now qualified to be officers, and the public seems to agree with them. The fact is that it takes much more than a few weeks to make a common soldier, to say nothing of an officer. Our maneuvers today will show the public what the National Guard does besides parade." The exercises today are being carried out on elaborate style, showing the men as they would be in action in war time.

DO YOU FEEL HEADACHY? LOOK TO YOUR STOMACH

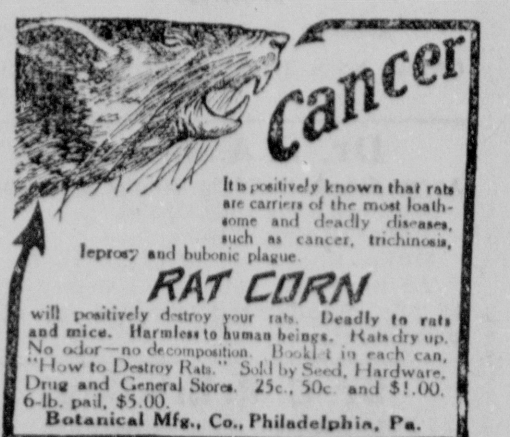

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Coover & Shreve, the popular druggists, are selling Mi-on-a, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine had been successful as with Mi-on-a. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-on-a can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to Coover & Shreve in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And they stand ready to do so without any question.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-on-a. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while complete cure often follows rapidly.

These days are the best. In the whole year for the enjoyment of good health, and Mi-on-a will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.—Adv.

RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS TO HOLD MEETING IN CALIFORNIA

Three Members of Illinois Utility Commission Will Attend National Gathering — Judge Thompson, Chairman Capitalization Committee.

The national association of railway commissioners will hold a session in San Francisco beginning Oct. 12. The association includes members of utility commissions and all state rate making bodies. Judge Owen P. Thompson, Walter A. Shaw and Frank Funk, of the Illinois commission will be in attendance. Members of the Illinois commission will take their vacations during the month of October, which will make possible attending this important convention. Judge and Mrs. Thompson left last night for Chicago, where the utility commission will be in session Tuesday and Wednesday.

Judge and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Funk will leave Chicago Wednesday night for the west. They will go by way of the Canadian Pacific and returning their route will be the Santa Fe. The whole journey will occupy about four weeks. Judge Thompson is chairman of the capitalization committee and a member of the committee on the publication of decisions of the national association. The other members of the capitalization committee are J. C. Clemons, member of the interstate commerce commission; J. S. Cram, of the first district of New York; Thomas L. Hall, of Nebraska; J. J. Murphy, of South Dakota; E. C. Timanus, of Maryland, and A. R. Weed, of Massachusetts. Mr. Shaw is a member of the committee on rates and rate making and Mr. Funk of the committee on classification and simplification of tariff sheets. Such increased powers have been given to commissions during recent years that the addresses and discussions heard at the national association meetings are of growing importance.

FUNERALS

Moody.

The funeral of Mrs. John Moody was held from Hebron church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Mr. Davis. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased. Music was furnished by the church choir. There was a large number of floral offerings and these were in charge of Miss Hannah Moody, Miss Flora Hall, Miss Lucile Hodgson and Mrs. Aaron T. Hodgson.

Interment was in Hebron cemetery and the bearers were: Elmer Moody, Bert Moody, George Murphy, Grant Moody, John Allison and William Allison.

Walter.

Funeral services for the late Frank Xavier Walter were held from Central Christian church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor, was in charge. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Miss Cora Graham, Mrs. Wallace Brockman, J. Phillip Read and C. L. Mathis. The flowers were in charge of Miss Lena Engel, Miss Nettie Engel, Miss Grace Taylor and Mrs. Henry Schneider.

Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery. The bearers were: Herman Weber, Harry Phillips, William Muehlhausen, John A. Schaub, R. L. McCullough and H. C. White.

The funeral of Mrs. Orville Hackman took place Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence five miles south of Virginia, in charge of Rev. Mac Wild. The singers were J. J. Berger, Dr. Blackman, Mrs. Lee Skiles and Mrs. Lena Madis. More extended services were held at 1:30 o'clock from the Arenzville Presbyterian church, in charge of Rev. Mr. Gordon, pastor of the St. Peter's Lutheran church. The funeral was one of the largest attended in that community for some time. Music was given by Misses Lena, Carrie and Verna Meyer, Velma Lovekamp, Lydia Duffelmeyer, Alma Neifstradt and Rev. Mr. Gordon and Edward Winners. The beautiful flowers were cared for by Misses Martha Musch, Nora Carls, Laura Long and Bertha Jockish.

Burial was made in the St. Peter's cemetery, west of Arenzville and the bearers were: Rudy Meyer, Oliver Hackman, Rudolph Winhold, Virgil Robinson, Chris Dahman and Roy Fisher.

MORTUARY

Houghton.

Information was received here Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Hart Massey, of the death of their cousin, Miss Kitty Houghton, at Petersburg. Her death occurred at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night as the result of typhoid fever. A younger sister is also afflicted with the disease, and as the home is under quarantine conditions, Mr. and Mrs. Massey will not attend the funeral. Miss Houghton was 23 years of age and had served as book-keeper for her father, who conducts an extensive seed corn business. The young woman was popular with a very large circle of friends and her untimely death has brought sadness to many hearts. She was an active member of the Christian church. But a few weeks ago Miss Houghton was here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Massey's invalid daughter, and at that time seemed to be in perfect health. The epidemic of typhoid at Petersburg has resulted in a very serious situation there.

Rimby.

Margaret Ethel Rimby, the four-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rimby, residing south-west of Murrayville, died Sunday night at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Zion M. E. church in charge of Rev. C. S. McCollom.

FAREWELL RECEPTION GIVEN BETHEL A. M. E. PASTOR

Rev. and Mrs. George T. Shaw Will go to Church Elsewhere—Good Record Made Here.

The Bethel A. M. E. church was filled last evening with a gathering of friends and parishioners assembled to say good-bye and Godspeed to Rev. and Mrs. Geo. T. Shaw who have labored so successfully the past five years with the organization. The auditorium was handsomely decorated with flowers and various adornments and presented a beautiful appearance. John W. Dunn presided and the whole program was one calculated to make the worthy pastor and his estimable wife feel that their labors for the church have been fully appreciated. All the speakers testified to the zeal and devotion of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and the work they have done and the minister and wife responded in a feeling manner.

After the formal program delicious refreshments were served and at late hour all departed for their homes well pleased with the exercises of the evening. Mr. Shaw expected to leave on the midnight Washash train for Decatur to attend the annual conference.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH HAD RALLY DAY.

Attendance Was Large and Program Was of Very Interesting Character.

Rally day at the Congregational church Sunday school Sunday morning was an unqualified success. The lecture room was crowded and an excellent program which had been prepared by the faithful superintendent, Ed Spink, and his helpers, was carried out.

Miss Lucy Sturtevant, a former member of the church and Sunday school, now a resident of Kushia, Ala., spoke of the pleasure it gave her to be present at the meeting. She told of their efforts to maintain a Sunday school where they lived. For a time it was held in a school house owned by a man in the vicinity. His residence burned and he has been occupying the school house as a residence. This has made it difficult to carry on the work.

Miss Scheibel then sang most acceptably "The Holy City." Miss Duncan was the accompanist. The primary class then sang and recited verses of scripture. Praise was then given to the primary class then followed and each one received a certificate of advancement. The pastor, Dr. R. O. Post then addressed the school. He spoke of the value of the bible and of the importance of knowing it well.

Miss Glecker, of Illinois woman's college, then told the children a story especially adapted for young folk. Her rendition was splendid and deeply impressed her hearers.

Miss Margaret Irving told an interesting story of an Indian who journeyed 2,000 miles to get a copy of the bible. Miss Marian Fairbank gave an interesting account of the successful establishment and conduct of a summer bible school after the fashion of public schools.

After a song by Miss Jean Jenkinson a ship was placed on the table and each one was invited to contribute something for the missionary pastor, Rev. Leonard J. Christian, at Foochow, China. A great many articles were contributed to be used in his mission and the kindergarten school conducted by him and his estimable wife.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' WEEK.

An audience deeply interested heard A. W. Connor, of Indianapolis, last night in the first of the boys' and girls' week series at Central Christian church. Addresses for parents will be given each evening at 7:30 o'clock in a manner scientific but by no means technical. Mr. Connor announced his purpose of kicking the "sigh" out of "psychology." Girls over nine and boys from 8 to 14 are invited to the church each afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Mary Seeger will interest the girls and Mr. Connor will be ready in his genial way to meet the boys.

HOUSE BURNS AT PRENTICE.

The seven room residence of Mrs. Mary A. Pike and son, of Prentice, was burned to the ground about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burning paper from the fire in thought to have ignited shingles of the roof. House and contents were a total loss. Mrs. Pike is over ninety years of age and had lived in the house for many years. She has eleven living children and is known and respected as one of the county's oldest pioneer residents.

HAXTON LIQUOR CASE ON TRIAL IN MORGAN COUNTY COURT

Jury Selected and Opening Statements Made—State Seeks Conviction on Three Counts.

The first case for jury trial in the present term of the Morgan county court was commenced Monday afternoon. Walter, alias "Pete" Haxton, is on trial for the alleged violation of a law which prohibits the selling of liquor in anti-saloon territory. State's Attorney Tilton is being assisted by William Wright and Haxton's attorneys are Paul P. Thompson and Paul Samuel. More than the usual amount of time was required in selecting the jury and so the statement of the case was not made until after half past four o'clock. It was then too late to begin the taking of evidence and so the examination of witnesses will begin this morning, when Judge Haxton convenes court.

The jury which will hear the evidence includes D. L. Barton, Jacksonville; Clark Cannon, Centerville; S. W. Hadden, Murrayville; Frank Hynes, Sinclair; J. H. Beguel, Woodson; O. C. Coultas, Lynnville; H. L. Purcell, Jacksonville; George Dietrick, Concord; Newton Moss, Sinclair; Charles Schmake, Meredosia; Henry Beelschmidt, Prentice; Ralph Sibley, Jacksonville.

Haxton has been convicted before and if he is found guilty this time it will be his third offense and under the law the court can sentence him to jail for ninety days under each count on which conviction is found and assess a fine of $200 or less. There are five counts in the indictment and the state's attorney is seeking conviction on three of these counts. It is said the state's case rests upon evidence that Sheriff Graff saw Haxton sell liquor and that several other witnesses the state will produce made purchases from him. Attorneys for Haxton made frequent objection to the opening statement of the state's attorney on the ground that it was argumentative and not simply a statement of what he expected to prove by the evidence.

SEEK TO HAVE ROAD OILED TO SANGAMON COUNTY LINE

Committee Finds People are Interested in Project to Insure Good Winter Traveling Conditions.

The project of having all of the Springfield road oiled to the Sangamon county line in order to connect up with the road which is to be oiled to that point is progressing satisfactorily. A committee composed of Messrs. Snyder, Stevenson and Trotter has been actively engaged for several days in seeking co-operation of farmers resident along the road, together with others who have occasion to use the road. It is understood that the Morgan county commissioners are lending their support to the project and it is supposed that the road district through which the road passes will also lend financial support.

The hope is that enough money will be subscribed to have the work completed within a few weeks, so that it will be in a passable condition all through the winter season. If this oiling work is done and the expectation of having the road oiled for the entire length in Sangamon county, a great deal will have been accomplished in the argument for oiled roads. This highway is used very extensively in all seasons of the year and if oiling will keep the road in good condition at all times, there will be little trouble in inducing property owners and road officials to become interested particularly in other localities.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who assisted us so kindly during the illness and after the death of our little daughter, Pauline, also for the many beautiful flowers. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Black.

CITY EDITORS OF ILLINOIS PAPERS HAVE ORGANIZED

Association Will Furnish News of Local Interest to Papers Belonging.

At a meeting of city editors of dailies throughout Illinois at Danville Sunday the Illinois City Editors Association was formed. The following officers were elected: President, C. R. Graves of the Danville Commercial-News; vice president, J. L. Hasbrouck of the Bloomington Pantagraph; secretary-treasurer, J. O. Monroe of the Jacksonville Courier. The following executive committee was named: Frank W. Greenway, De Kalb Chronicle; R. S. Simpson, Taylorville Breeze; W. N. Southered, Clinton Journal; and L. R. Blackman, Moline Dispatch.

About twenty-five papers were represented at the meeting. The meeting was called by C. R. Graves, city editor of the Commercial-News, assisted by John Harrison, publisher of the Commercial-News. The purpose of the association is to develop a cooperative system of furnishing news to papers that is of local interest and which is not carried in the regular press service in this manner any news of interest to Jacksonville people will be sent here while if anything happens in Jacksonville that is of interest to Danville or some other city in the state it will be sent to that city.

The visitors to Danville were royally entertained. Following the business session the visiting newspaper men were given an automobile ride about the city. The trip also included a visit to the Old Soldier's home and over stretches of the paved road system now under construction in Vermillion county. Following the ride the guests were entertained at dinner at the Country club by Mr. Harrison of the Commercial-News. Addresses were made by Mr. Harrison, P. H. Boone, assistant city editor of the Chicago Tribune had "Uncle" Joe Cannon.
